EDSA 25 festivities on air at NBN 4

In line with this week's celebration of the 25th anniversary of the peaceful and world-renowned 1986 EDSA People Power Revolution, the government-run National Broadcasting Network (NBN 4) on Wednesday started airing programs that allow every Filipino, especially those not born yet at the time the bloodless revolution that ousted a dictatorship took place, to grasp the significance of this day.

Among these is a TV special that was first aired in 1995, called "EDSA: The World Remembers." This will be aired once again at NBN 4 on Wednesday and will run through until the 27th.

This TV special, according to Maria Montelibano, head of Edsa 25 celebration, in a press briefing on EDSA's 25th anniversary held last week in Malacanang, features many world leaders like Vaclav Havel, Raul Alfonsin, former US President Bill Clinton and former Congressman Stephen Solarz giving their homage and tribute to the Filipino people for starting a peaceful revolution.

Other EDSA 25 special programs of NBN 4 include "The Challenge of EDSA," "Kalayaan (People Power)," "Winning the Peace," "Puso at Diwa Ni Ninoy" and "Ninoy: The Heart and the Soul".
